

Learning Chinese and understanding Chinese culture can help you achieve greater business success - we show you how!

Are you a medium sized Australian business owner with operations in China? Maybe you're looking to set up a business over there? Perhaps you have staff who regularly communicate with colleagues in China but who are frustrated at not being able to understand Chinese in a business setting?

If this sounds like you then we can help. Chinese does not have to be a difficult language to learn. Our courses will teach you and your staff to learn conversational Chinese in as little as 6 weeks, enabling you to participate and be more effective in your meetings.

Doing business with China is not just about learning the language. It is also important to have an understanding and sensitivity of the cultural differences between China and Australia to minimise miscommunication and misunderstanding between staff.

Establishing relationships and building trust is another key success factor when doing business with Chinese people.

Our cultural awareness training helps you achieve this and puts you on the road to forming the best business relationships possible with your Chinese counterparts.

Our teaching approach is supportive, encouraging and enthusiastic. Our expert Chinese teacher Vivian Xi has over 10 years experience and uses creative teaching methods to help you quickly achieve results.

The benefits of using our services...

Practical Approach and Business Focus

We teach practical Mandarin for all your Chinese business communication needs. We don't focus on teaching textbook dialogues or memorizing complicated written characters which means you and your staff can learn to speak basic Mandarin Chinese in as little as 6 weeks (1.5 - 2 hours per week) - faster than any other program.

Creative Teaching Method

We teach you and your staff how to use Chinese in REAL life situations. We help you to develop the ability to recognize the language structures and use the language patterns to build your own sentences in a meaningful context. We help you remember words and phrases using English word associations so it becomes more meaningful.

Combine language and Culture

Language and culture go hand in hand. Without an understanding of culture, the meaning of the language can be lost. At Chinese language and culture training, we not only teach you to speak Mandarin Chinese, we also teach you culture and etiquette which are important tools when you are doing business with China.

Motivational and Engaging

We make learning Chinese come 'alive'! We use jokes and real life stories that will help you remember the Chinese language in a cultural context. We stimulate your learning and support and challenge you at the same time. We help achieve better results. We are passionate about teaching and our enthusiasm for learning is infectious.

Quality, Experienced teaching

Your company deserves the best! Our quality teaching and first class experience in Chinese language and culture training will ensure you and your staff are motivated and achieve results.
